

Lives of great men all remind us

Lives of great men all remind us

We can make our lives sublime,

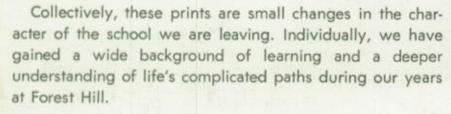

And, departing, leave behind us

Footprints on the sands of time.

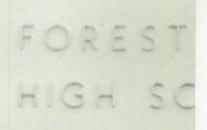

-Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

The sun sets on another school year, and we can see lasting footsteps we have left in the history of Forest Hill and in our lives. We are leaving footprints in the sand where the waves cannot creep up and wash them away.

Like one grain of sand, by ourselves we are insignificant. But united, gathered together, with our various talents, personalities, and differences, we become a driving force. We can create, develop, invent, discover. Someday, our contributions may become the basis for an idea which will leave a lasting impression on our world.

In the year past we have experienced both good and bad days. Yet looking back, some days seem to be illuminated by rays of sunlight. The excitement of football games, the action of basketball games, the dances, the assemblies, the candlelit prom, the mixed emotions of graduation. Ahead of us, the future is waiting with new experiences and opportunities.

An expanding school system like Palm Beach County's demands a strong educator with experience, wisdom, and interest in control.

Palm Beach County students, teachers, and administrators are fortunate in having Mr. Robert W. Fulton as Superintendent of Schools.

A high moral character, a broad educational background, successful teaching experience, the ability to get along with the public, definite views on the value of good educational systems, and a determination to see that Palm Beach County schools are tops—these are a few of the qualities Mr. Fulton possesses.

Keeping abreast with the latest educational theories and methods, Mr. Fulton demands that the supervisory personnel and administrators implement those new techniques which are considered advantageous to the educational growth of the schools.

As top man in a really big business—training our youth to step into responsible positions as adults—Mr. Fulton devotes his time and energy to insuring the continued improvement of the county schools.

The Board of Public Instruction sets the pace for the students in the climb to a successful future.

This five-member group of local business and professional men, elected by the public to a four-year term, is responsible for the operation of the schools according to county and state policy. The board members set the school policies, supervise the educational program, and issue contracts to personnel.

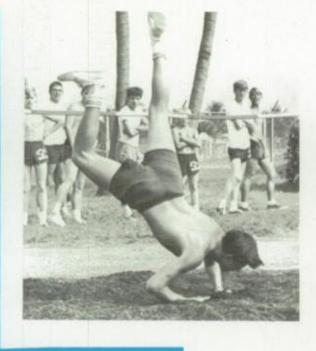

Behind us we leave our footprints. The tide rises and ebbs but our footprints remain. The future awaits us like a clean beach we may leave our footprints where we wish.

MR. ROBERT RIGGS

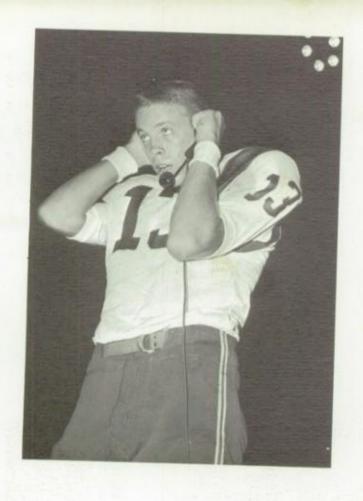

An innate desire of an athlete is to prove himself—not only to himself, but to others as well. He feels the need to belong, and once he does, he becomes an integral part of his team. He knows too, that his best effort is worthless unless the whole school is behind the team in one great effort to win, for that is the only reason he gives his best. Stars are few, but he feels a warmth in knowing that in some way his tiny effort made the victory possible.

Under the direct supervision of Mr. Robert Riggs, Forest Hill has been able to maintain a high standard in athletic competition. He and his outstanding coaches have instigated a constant desire for victory in all sports.

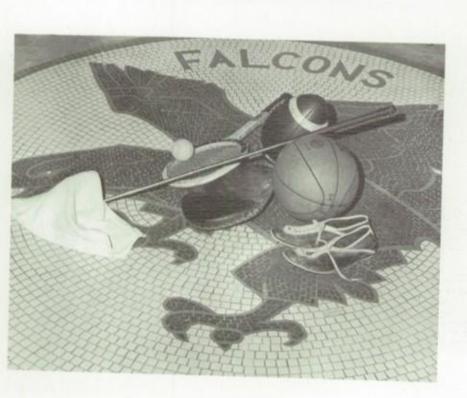

Homecoming activities were brought to a climax on Kettler Field November 23, 1966, with the Falcons playing host to Palm Beach. The Wildcats came out the winner in the hard-fought contest 14-12. Halftime festivities featured last year's queen, Beth Hobson, crowning Mary Lou Sparks as Homecoming Queen for 1966-67. Members of the court were Cindy Trefry, escorted by Glenn Winkler, Tish Rickett, escorted by Woody Rice, Janet Bentz, escorted by Ken Thompson, Brenda Billings, escorted by Jim Herrick. The Queen was escorted by Frank Balis.

JIM NICHOLSON

Even with the able leadership of coaches Jim Nicholson, Bill Davenport, Jerry Jacobs, head coach, Abner Bigbie, and Frank Springer, the Falcons were unable to finish the season with a record better than four wins, five losses, and one tie.. Working hard and long hours the entire season, the coaches helped keep spirit high and the determination to win strong.

Spirit—A gift to the student body from the eight most spirited Falcons, the Forest Hill cheerleaders. The eight girls—Chris Smith, Mary Lou Sparks, Janet Bentz, Tish Rickett, Helen Felsing, Georgette Chalhub, Libby Owen, and Susan Miller—sponsored by Miss Mildred Crickenberger, spark Falcon spirit at pep rallies, games, bonfires, with announcements, and on bus trips.

Spirit and enthusiasm, displayed by the cheerleaders, have become synonymous with FHHS this year. Chanting victory cries at pep rallies and games, these eight spirit boosters have increased participation in all school activities. With limitless energy they set up a student body as one of the most highly spirited anywhere. They have encouraged good sportsmanship while cheering for victories and have rejoiced when Forest Hill achieved both.

As Forest Hill's assistant principal Mr. Herschel Chaney's major job is to aid in fulfilling administrative tasks and to lend other needed assistance. He is familiar with every aspect of student and teacher life.

Operation of the Data Processing machine ("affectionately" known as The Monster), as well as responsibility for student scheduling, falls under his efficient supervision.

Personal advice and assistance may be received from Mr. James Westbrook, Dean of Boys, and Mrs. Violet E. Gunby, Dean of Girls. They deal directly with the student through such matters as attendance, conferences, explanation of school rules, and illnesses. The deans are always willing to lend a helping hand, and they strive to overlook no student.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

Numerous essential services are provided by the personnel of the Guidance Department, Mr. Harold Brake, Mrs. Bernice Granger, and Mr. Wayne Fortenberry. These services include information, orientation of new students, and the administering of the Senior Placement Test, PSAT, SCAT and other examinations.

For the purpose of determining progress, the counselor plans one conference each semester with the individual student. This also gives the assigned counselor an opportunity to discuss with that student any questions or problems he may present concerning high school, college or career.

SECRETARIES

The secretaries perform many tasks essential to the needs of faculty and students. Every office operates efficiently as a result of their work.

Important jobs and problems of the main office are expertly handled by Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Wilks. These services include handling the payroll, keeping records, making appointments, and taking dictation.

The school treasurer, Mrs. Allen, is responsible for all monies collected, bills to be paid, and accounts for clubs and department.

Scheduling students, issuing report cards and preparing attendance bulletins are among the duties performed by Mrs. Robson, data-process clerk. Mrs. Feol, secretary in the Guidance Department, takes care of permanent records, college transcripts, medical forms and papers for withdrawals and new students.

All of the secretaries share the work of locating students, answering telephone calls, and scores of other incidental services.

MRS. MYRNA R. PARTENZA Head Librarian A.B., Florida Southern College

LIBRARY

Between the covers of a book there are pages which contain treasures of unsurpassed value. These are the jewels of thought and knowledge, which have been formed by the tremendous pressures within the mind. Perhaps it is unique that the treasures of a book are never withheld from those minds that go in search of their secrets and tarry to dwell upon the pages.

The library at Forest Hill is indeed a refuge for seeking minds. It is kept vibrantly alive by the refreshment of ideas contained within new volumes. Indeed, there is no lack of material at Forest Hill High to encourage the forward march of learning.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The English Department makes every effort to provide a basic program that develops communication skills for the student as an individual. It also offers interesting and important activities that lay an indestructible foundation for our later adult needs.

Included in this program are grammar, literature, speech, dramatics, journalism, and the opportunity to work on the school publications—the Gauntlet or the Falcon.

Instructors in the various social studies courses provide interesting activities in an attempt to relate class views and knowledge to the world scene of past and present days.

Through involvement in research projects, speeches, and discussions, students are given a chance to express opinions and to examine areas which hold personal interest.

Social studies teachers strive to instill in the student a system of logical, deductive reasoning about today's issues, so that he will be able to face tomorrow's problems with an open and intelligent mind.

The greatest aim of the BUSINESS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

is to prepare students for the future. This future may be a professional position, therefore requiring a knowledge and practical application of business skills.

Even if a professional position is not expected in a student's future, he will find it helpful to develop a usable skill—shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping—for he may be enabled to apply that skill in later life.

Business education teachers feel that everyone should have a knowledge of business and industry. Accordingly, their goal is general education in that field as well as in skills; their hope, that students may later leave an imprint in the sands of commercial success.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Studying a foreign language, besides aiding us in the future, adds a little variety to our lives. To make it even more interesting, our lab facilities are excellent and enjoyable.

Included in the foreign language program this year is the ever-popular study of French on three levels, in addition to four-level courses in Latin and Spanish. For the first time at Forest Hill both first- and second-year German studies are also offered.

DIVERSIFIED COOPERATIVE TRAINING

has many objectives related to vocational training and to personal development.

By combining a general and a specific course under the DCT instructor with two academic courses, the student is able to fulfill his educational objectives during the year that he works for one-half day as a part-time employee for a local business firm.

Students obtain skills required in applying for positions, in getting along with employers and fellow employees, and in doing the various tasks involved in their jobs. As a result, they understand what will be necessary in order to obtain permanent employment after graduation.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

teachers provide assistance and encouragement for students in the development of their various musical interests and talents.

The theory and appreciation courses which they offer are dedicated to better understanding-not only by those students with talent, but also by those who simply desire cultural enrichment.

The student body, as well as the community, is entertained by excellent assembly programs, presented annually by the Falcon Band and the Singing Falcons.

Music is enjoyed by all.

ART DEPARTMENT

Believing that each student has an innate sense of design, the art instructor provides various activities to enable students to understand and appreciate the arts.

A basic purpose of art classes and the Art Club is to aid students in becoming acquainted with the museums, parks, public buildings, and general architecture of the community-this is to help them realize their own responsibilities as citizens.

MR. A. W. CARPENTER Chair., Driver Education Department B.S., East Tennessee State University, M.A., University of Mis-

DRIVER EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The approach to classes of the Driver Education Department is to educate students in everything related to operation of automobiles, including proper attitudes and courteous habits.

Prospective drivers study basic facts of the mechanical operation of the car in order to understand why safe driving procedures are necessary to insure that possible accidents are avoided.

MR. JAMES D. HEATON Driver Education Coach, JV Football, Coach, Baseball B.Ed., University of Miami, M.Ed., Florida Atlantic

MR. JOHN S. LaBAY Driver Education A.B., West Liberty State College

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The teachers of the Physical Education Department include health, safety, recreation, and physical fitness units in this year's program.

Emphasis is also placed upon rules of courtesy and sportsmanship, and efforts are made to build an appreciation of outdoor life. Juniors and seniors are not required to take this course, but many do out of pure enjoyment.

They Care Too . . .

The Gray Ladies at Forest Hill are volunteer workers for one of our greatest individual services, the Red Cross. Each member of the large national group is selected for certain days of work in the clinic.

These women are engaged in such duties as patching wounds, handing out bandaids, taking the names of those students too ill to stay in school and arranging for their departures for home. The Grey Ladies deserve a thankyou for the time and patience they willingly give up to assist our students.

The Grey Ladies are always on hand to render assistance.

As we seniors take our leave of Forest Hill High School, we wish to stop a moment and reminisce about our three years at Forest Hill and relive some of our fondest memories.

In late August, 1964, we gathered as sophomores in the gymnatorium, eager for whatever lay ahead of us, perhaps a little frightened, too. We spent most of our time learning, observing, and setting our goals to be carried out in our junior and senior years. Our upperclassmen were ever present to guide our infant footsteps.

Our junior year marked another footprint in the sands of time. John Ayoub, class president, led us in topping last year's sales in the annual Junior Magazine Drive, held to finance the Junior-Senior Prom at Whitehall in May to honor the graduating seniors.

On August 29, 1966, we began the last lap of our high school career. The year ahead of us was to be one of hard work and activities we would remember all our lives. Mark Sipperly was elected to lead us in our ventures.

Forging onward, we began our last year with enthusiasm as we sponsored the "Get Acquainted" dance, held especially for the incoming sophomores.

The talent show staged in February was a first for the senior class. Talent Scouts Neal Starkman, Chris Ferri, Lorraine Ljunggren, and Robert Carr uncovered the talented students from each class to present the fabulous Club '67.

Under the leadership of Mr. John Snider, the Senior Class Play was presented in April as our biggest moneymaking project. The entire class participated in the publication and organization of the memorable play "The Miracle Worker."

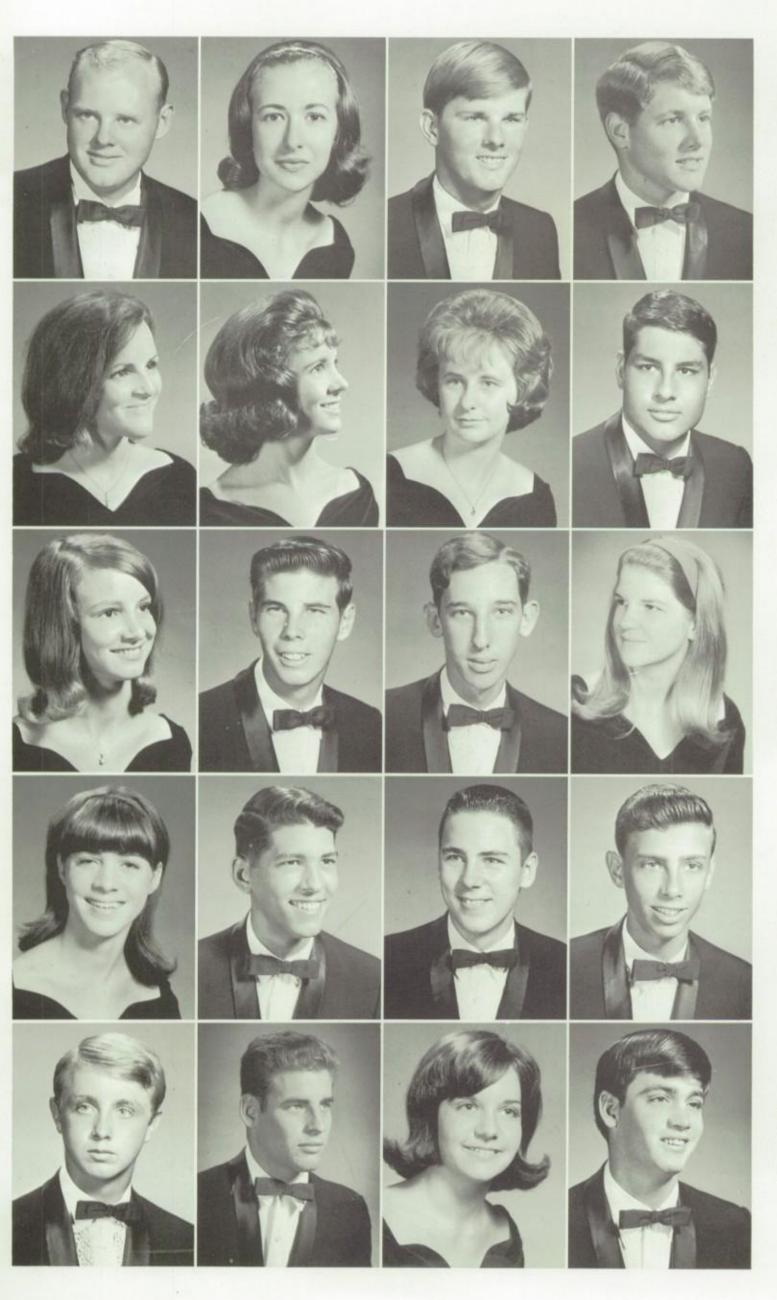

Throughout the year we were busy ordering cards and invitations and measuring for caps and gowns. Outstanding seniors were honored at Class Night, another memorable event as the year drew to a close.

Baccalaureate brought mingled emotions as we seniors began to realize that soon our high school days would be over.

Finally, on graduation night, we received our diplomas and it was all over but the memory. We took one last look at all the joy and sorrow we had experienced during our high school years, and we wished we could explain to those remaining the value of those anxious moments—all a part of our high school years which are but footprints in the sands of time.

Class of 1968

An enthusiastic group of junior boys and girls, a dynamic leader, an active Junior Board, and interested, reliable sponsors—these were the ingredients that made the Class of 1968 enjoy such a busy and successful junior year.

The juniors made a deep imprint in the history of Forest Hill High School by setting a new school record of $6551.69 magazine subscriptions sold during the annual January Magazine Drive—the big money-making project of the class.

"Whispering Palms," soft music, delicious food, decorations in blue and silver, pink sweetheart roses, beautifully gowned girls, tuxedo-clad young men, smiling faces, flowers, mingled perfumes, moonlight, fabulous memories—these lasting impressions were created by the Class of 1968 at the always thrilling and long-anticipated Junior-Senior Prom at the Whitehall May 19 honoring the seniors.

Receiving their class rings made these young people realize that the end of carefree school days would soon end.

These active young people now look ahead to their final year at Forest Hill, filled with the excitement, thrills, sorrows, and hard work that means a senior year well done.

Junior Sponsors: Mr. Anthony E. Oliver, Chairman, Mrs. Erma K. Milligan, Miss Shirley Jackson, Mr. Allan U. King, and Mr. John G. Abbott.

The members of the Class of 1969 got their feet wet as senior high school students at their special Orientation assembly in August, prior to the opening of the regular 1966-67 school year.

During their sophomore year, these young people waded into life at Forest Hill High School with zest and became enthusiastic supporters of their school.

The sophomores now look forward to taking a more active part in Forest Hill's activities when they acquire the status of juniors—and thus become eligible to plunge into more school events.

Student Council

The Student Council strives throughout the year to serve all phases of school life through the promotion of school spirit, student participation in activities, and an appreciation and understanding of representative government inherent to our democratic way of life. In addition, the Student Council attempts to assist in the formulation and regulation of school policies and rules.

The activities of the Student Council are many and varied. They range from the every day supervision of the halls during lunch to the sponsorship of a new experience—the computer dance. In addition are such projects as buying a Christmas tree with the Keyettes for the cafeteria, the "poke-the-wildcat" contest, and the operation of the bookstore. As aids to communication, the Student Council sponsored both the suggestion box and the cafeteria bulletin board. One major project that the Council undertakes is the supervision of all student elections.

The council attained a new height of recognition and leadership during the year by its election to the position of V. President of District 5 of the Florida Association of Student Councils.

Diversified Cooperative

DCT students work diligently in the Christmas Seal drive.

Training Club

The bus rides are the relaxing part of the conventions before the work.

To promote a better relationship between students, their employers, the school, and the community is the main objective of the DCT Club.

During the past year, the DCT Club has striven to attain its goal by promoting school spirit through the sale of booster buttons and car decals. At the end of the year, the members attend an Employer-Employee Banquet with their employers as their guests. The DCT Club serves the community by helping with the preparation of Christmas seals for distribution by the Tuberculosis Society, along with other civic projects.

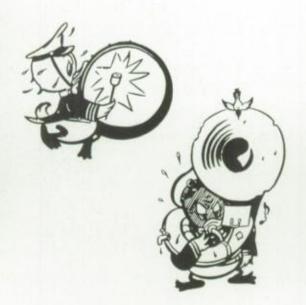

In developing character, scholarship, and leadership among its members, the DCT Club has truly lived up to its motto, "Today we follow, tomorrow we lead . . . "

Forest Hill Falcon Band

At a football game, at a basketball game, or even just after school, a student at Forest Hill can hear the loud, rhythmic sounds of the high school band. He can hear a group of hard-working, spirited classmates pooling their talents to provide an integral part of the student activities here at Forest Hill.

The FHHS Band provides an opportunity for a great portion of the students at our school to develop and display their talents, as well as share in the spirit and drive representative of the Fighting Falcons.

The Singing Falcons have contributed much to the spirit of Forest Hill by participating not only in school functions but also by representing Forest Hill throughout our community. In the past they have represented our school in District and State contests, 1000 Voices at Christmas, the All-County Choral Festival, and the All-State Contest. By doing these and many other services, the Singing Falcons not only have strengthened their own musical talent and ability but also have tried to interest others in the various fields of music.

Lionette Club

The Lionette Club's motto, "We Serve," professes the service that has been shown this year by this club.

The year began for them as guides at the annual Sophomore Orientation Day. The Lionettes supervised the welcoming and attempted to put across the FH feeling of friendliness. This was followed by Homecoming. The Lionettes surpassed all in their Toyland skit (which took first place) and their enormous whale ground display.

A favorite event of the year was the Lionette Faculty Christmas Tea, highlighted by a luscious array of goodies and gifts for teachers and the arrival of Santa Claus.

Money-making projects include the traditional Lionette Homecoming corsages, a car wash, a bake sale, the colorful Sadie Hawkins Dance in May, and the sale of Forest Hill sweatshirts.

Lionettes are equally active in events of the Southside Lions Club.

The Lionettes attempt to serve others, and in doing so to spread a warm atmosphere of friendliness. They strive to do their best—not to be best, but to try.

A whale of a tale-

The Lionette's pride and joy is the bench on their patio.

Jr. Civitan Club

Through unselfish service and undaunted desire for success, the Junior Civitan Club continues to fulfill its motto of "Builders of Good Citizenship" in both school and community. One of the many school projects was the maintenance and operation of the fountain and patio adjoining the cafeteria.

The Civitans annually present the Robert Watkins Memorial Scholarship to a deserving senior. The funds for this scholarship are raised through Civitan Candy Sale, Claxton Fruit Cake Sale, and Civitan Surf Stomp, the most widely attended dance of the school year.

Each year Civitan International presents awards to the most productive Civitan Clubs in the state at the annual convention in Miami. The Forest Hill Civitans pride themselves on being on or near the top of the awards list each year.

Jr. Exchangette Club

"UNITY FOR SERVICE"

Under the sponsorship of the Southwest Exchange Club, the Junior Exchangette Club is dedicated to instilling within each of its members high standards of leadership, scholarship, and service.

Guided by its motto, this active organization is responsible for numerous annual service projects on campus as well as within the community. Among these projects are a spring "clean-up" campaign, a Christmas party held for the elderly folks, Easter baskets made for the Children's Home, canned goods and nickels for turkeys collected for the needy, and "spirit" signs made to promote school spirit.

In order to finance these service projects, the Junior Exchangettes also sponsor several moneymaking projects including the annual Thanksgiving dance, a bake sale and a car wash.

Jr. Exchange Club

Under the sponsorship of the Southwest Exchange Club, this active organization is responsible for many successful projects on campus, including the annual Thanksgiving dance, the sale of Forest Hill tee-shirts, and the firing of the cannon at home football games. There is also a traditional assembly, in which the Exchange Club Boy and Girl of the Year are presented.

The members and their sweetheart, Mary Lou Sparks, under the motto "Unity for Service," strive to maintain the Exchange Club's outstanding record of service and responsibility.

Keyette Club

The 1966-67 school year has been a busy one for the members of the Keyette service club. The Keyettes started their year with a service to the teachers by providing refreshments in the faculty lounge for a day. Other projects during the year were: putting spirit posters in homerooms, helping with the Alsac drive, helping the NFL with a speech tournament, ushering at Municipal Stadium for the Golden Palm festival, picking up license plates for the teachers, singing Christmas carols at hospitals at Christmastime, and their most important, the scholarship to the junior college at the end of the year.

Money-making events throughout the year include rummage sales, bake sales, car washes, and back rest rentals at athletic events.

The highlight of the year came in November when the Keyettes, in a joint effort with the Key Club, produced the First place float with the title "Tortoise and the Hare." Another highlight was the club's annual Mistletoe Ball with music by the fabulous Rude Awakenings. It was at this all-school semi-formal that President Cindy Trefry announced Randy Lyon as the "Keyette Man" for the year 1967.

The Keyettes' year ends with a service project to the teachers by helping them get ready for the summer on the day after school closes.

Keyettes have a good time while attending their "Get-Acquainted" tea.

The Key Club

Through its program of service and friendship, the Key Club assumes an important role in the development of the future leaders of America.

This year, the Key Club calendar came out in December; the Sweetheart Ball was more of a success than in past years. A full color surfing movie and a spaghetti dinner were two more of the Key Club's annual projects.

Each year, the Key Club paints and repairs benches around the school. They also honor the faculty when they observe "Youth Salutes Their Teachers Day" at an all-school assembly which they present with the Keyettes.

Through their motto "We Build," the Key Club members strive to make their projects successful.

Z Club

"Growth through Service" is the Z Club's motto and the basis for all projects undertaken. Assisting the Heart Fund, the County Nutritional Committee, and the Alsac Drive gave the club a chance to aid in the betterment of the community. An annual project of washing desks in classrooms was undertaken. Assisting teachers, working in the refreshment stand at football games, and serving at assemblies add to school spirit and understanding. A Z Club patio and bench have also been established on the school grounds.

Working in a group and going to church together unites the members of the Z Club in improving life at home, at school, and in the community.

After so many flowers, they're even starting to smell.

Proud smiles from a proud club.

So they call this organization?

Speech and Drama Club

The Foremost purpose of the Speech and Drama Club is to promote interest in the fields of speech and drama. The club undertakes various activities and projects, one of which is to aid the Debate Team in their field. Members take part in poetry readings, dramatic recitations, skits, and public speaking, all on a voluntary basis. Membership is open to all persons who express a desire to further their knowledge and experience by participation, or to those who wish to further their interest by being an onlooker.

Creative Writing

The Creative Writing Guild of Forest Hill, reactivated this year after a dormant period, has as its goal the publication of the literary magazine, Endite. Contributions to Endite are from sophomores, juniors, and seniors. This year the club participated in Homecoming activities by giving a performance of a modern-day "Beowulf" for Skit Nite.

Gauntlet Staff

Double bubble toil and trouble

The yearbook begins its life much like a baby does, receiving its first breath of life at the opening of the school year. It becomes vibrant with life as the various section, editors work together in developing the Gauntlet into a recorded history of the school year. The staff works diligently in recording all that happens. As the end of the year approaches the yearbook has developed into a fine upstanding adult. It by no means dies when it is given to the student but has eternal life in the cherished library of our high school years.

Falcon Staff

Publishing the monthly edition of Forest Hill's newspaper, The Falcon, is the main function of the Falcon staff. This entails such activities as collecting facts and items of interest to organize and publish in the true journalistic fashion. The staff also sells the newspaper to the students of Forest Hill who benefit from its informative, educational, human interest, and comic sections. Forest Hill takes pride in its well-rounded newspaper and the staff that is responsible for its publication.

The National Forensic League, (NFL), is a national speech honorary society whose members and pledges compete on the county, district, and state levels. Activities carry them to many high schools, colleges, and universities throughout the state.

Areas of competition are:

Debate

Extemp Speaking
Extemp-Debate
Student Congress
Original Oratory
Discussion

After-Dinner

Oratorical Interpretation
Dramatic Interpretation
Humorous Interpretation
Poetry Reading
Memorized Poetry
Prose Reading
Radio Announcing

Besides speech competition, students get opportunities to work in radio, television, and sportscasting at school home games.

A student does not have to be a good speaker to participate because emphasis is on trying and on learning through experience. As added incentives, students may earn school letters and other awards which are presented at an annual banquet held at the end of each school year and at class night.

Art Club

Art is a primary part of our culture. The goals of the Art Club are to offer art experience to those who have not had art and to enrich the experience of those who have. Gallery-hopping, sketching trips, field trips, and symposiums are a few ways in which the club strives to achieve its goals. The chief fund raising project is the Sidewalk Art Show. Proceeds from this event sponsor a scholarship to Palm Beach Junior College. This year a Homecoming display was created to boost school spirit.

Undaunted by many problems, the Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y float still came through.

Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y are organizations set up to create, maintain, and extend throughout home, school, and community high standards of good Christian character.

Sponsored by the YMCA, these clubs serve the school, community, and state. This year at the Youth Legislature in Tallahassee our clubs held the position of Sgt.-at-Arms of the Senate.

Entering into the Homecoming activities, the combined clubs took second place in Skit Night and third place in the float competition.

Falcon Business Club

This is the Falcon Business Club's second year in existence. It has been the club's goal to assist students in understanding what qualities, traits, and aptitudes are essential to be successful in the business world. To aid them in achieving their goal, skits, projects, and guest speakers were used. Activities included the completion of the patio near the home economics room, car washes, bake sales, and candy sales.

Math Club

In today's nuclear age, mathematics has become an essential part of a well-balanced education. The Math Club is new here at Forest Hill High School this year and was formed for the purpose of creating a greater interest in the workings of mathematics. It is the misconception of many that math is dull and uninteresting, but the Math Club endeavors to prove that adventure and excitement can be found through figures, decimals, and equations.

French Club

L'Etcile de la Culture Française is a club established for the purpose of enriching the student's knowledge of França, her people, language, and culture.

Meetings are lively, spiced with student talent, including songs and skits in French. Occasionally travel films or slides are shown, and special guest speakers are invited to address the members.

As a subject interest club, the French Club uses membership dues to purchase French books for the library or to buy special language materials for the French department for use in the classes.

German Club

Deutsche Verein, the newest club of Forest Hill High School's language department, has now completed its first year. The purpose of this club is to enable German students to meet and to enlarge their interests and knowledge of Germany, its people and its language, outside of the classroom. Membership is open to second-year students and eligible first-year students.

Two of the club's projects were the giving of a Christmas food basket to a needy family and the giving of gift packages of pretzels to the teachers at Christmas.

Although a new club, the Comitia Latina has proven itself to be the most unusual organization on campus. Our main purpose is to perpetuate the Roman language and customs, but at the same time, we have succeeded in relating these interests to Forest Hill and its activities. This was shown by our participation in Skit Night, the annual Latin Club movie. The highlight of the year was the Comitia Latina banquet, in the true Roman tradition, complete with slaves from the lower Latin classes and a play featuring Rome as it was.

Spanish Honor Society

The 1966-67 year of the Spanish Honor Society got off to a good start as new members were installed in the library on December 4, 1966. During a successful and active year, this organization cooked a Christmas dinner for under-privileged families. They also made enchiladas for adult Spanish Honor Society was established in 1964. Requirements for membership are: Members from Spanish 3 and 4 must have a B average, and members from Spanish 1 and 2 must have an A average.

Future Teachers of America

We, as members of the Future Teachers of America, are glad and grateful for this special opportunity to pursue and gain knowledge in our chosen career. As we look back, we are appreciative of the many teachers we have known during our years in school. With this thought in mind we have set our sights high and made it our sincere wish to bring the joy of knowledge to others as teachers ourselves.

We may not all succeed, yet we shall have known the thrill of experience, and that, we feel, is the greatest gift of all.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization devoted to improving community, family, and personal ways of life for the present and the future. Local, district, and state events encourage each member to excel in her own respect. To recognize accomplishments of individual members, there is a Degree of Achievement program.

The club's activities include visiting nursing homes and hospitals, making favors for Halloween for the children's ward, a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family, Christmas favors for hospitals, and selling toothbrushes.

One day these club experiences will aid the members in following the path toward the building of good health.

Pep Club

This organization is devoted to the cause of bettering school spirit. Members learn the main cheers from the cheerleaders and sit together at pep rallies and games. You will always find these enthusiastic girls on hand to liven up the student body, waving shakers and cheering loudly.

Their money-earning project is the selling of pep tags for the students to wear.

The Pep Club also sponsors the pep bus to out-of-town games.

The G.A.A. was established to give girl's a chance to participate in a variety of sports at the intramural level such as: Volley Ball, Softball, Bowling, and Basketball.

We welcome any girl to participate in this program, to express new ideas and plan new and different sports.

Each time she participates in a sport she receives 2 points. A girl reaching the required number of points in each year's time receives an award of recognition.

We are active in playing other school teams and hope you'll be active in playing for us!

Come alive; you're in the Pepsi generation.

The Varsity Club is an honorary organization that recognizes all boys who earn letters for participation in varsity sports. As a club, these boys do their part to promote good athletics, sportsmanship, and spirit on the Forest Hill campus. The Varsity club has actively participated in varied projects throughout the year. Some of these are as follows: Selling refreshments at football games, carrying the down chains at all home games, and cleaning the Jr. varsity locker rooms. Perhaps the most outstanding accomplishment this year was winning first place in the Homecoming ground display competition.

There are many different phases in the lives of students at Forest Hill High School. From Homecoming to pep rallies and dances, Student Life, both in school and out of school, leaves a very large imprint on the sands of time.

Education is the key to not only your own personal success but to the future of our country. It is becoming more apparent each year that the youth of our country is going to need more and more formal education, not only to compete in today's complex world, but also to insure the continuance of the American way of life. Only by having a well-informed and knowledgeable citizenry can the great heritage and potential of America be realized.

Does going to college pay?

Yes! The U.S. Census Bureau estimates that the average college graduate will earn $170,000 more during his working lifetime than a high school graduate. A college diploma pays dividends!

As our country grows ever more technological, a solid educational background becomes increasingly important in shaping your career.

Congratulations and best wishes to the Class of '67. Go forward with Florida in the exciting and stimulating years ahead. More power to you!

Lives of great men all remind us We can make our lives sublime, And, departing, leave behind us Footprints on the Our life may seem unimportant or our though ated, but to our creator we were only the begind extraordinary sea of sand. the beginn of another new ch step we take toward the future drive r experiences, thoughts, our beliefs, and our hopes into a molded footprint to be shed away by the rolling tide, only to be retaken moments later. he waves of ignorance, ill-will, and misfortune may knock us down; if our goals are set high and minds set straight, the overpowering We are your own, the faithful one who'll always stand with thee.

The memories has been a see to see the Ima Ma dear you
